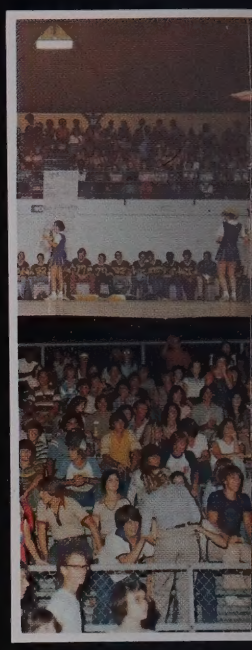
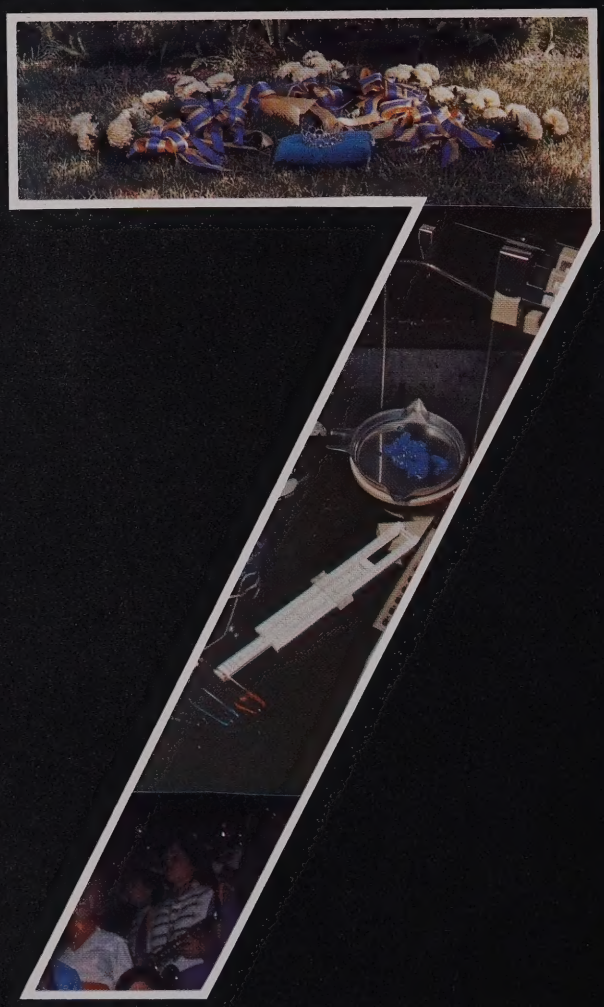
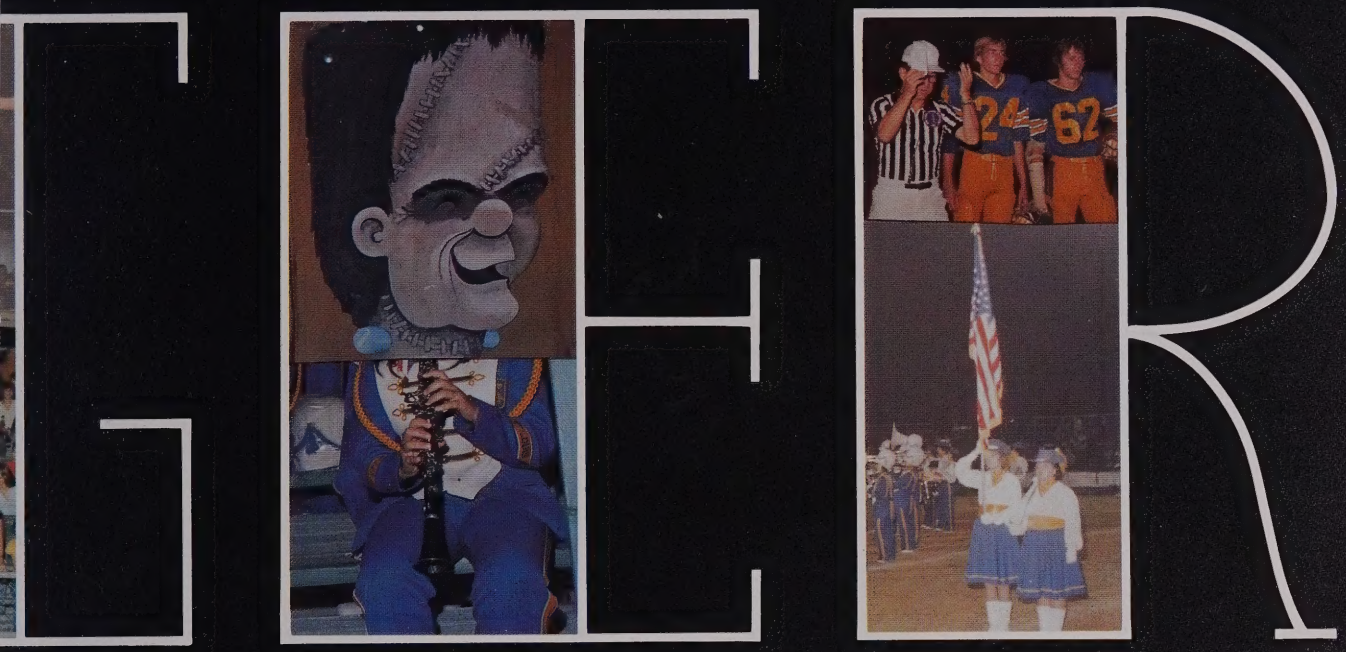
WE WILL WIN BECAUSE THE
WITH US!!







As we go our own separate ways;
Let's all remember the good times we had . . .
The friends we knew and . . .
The things we accomplished.
And always look back at these years as good years.

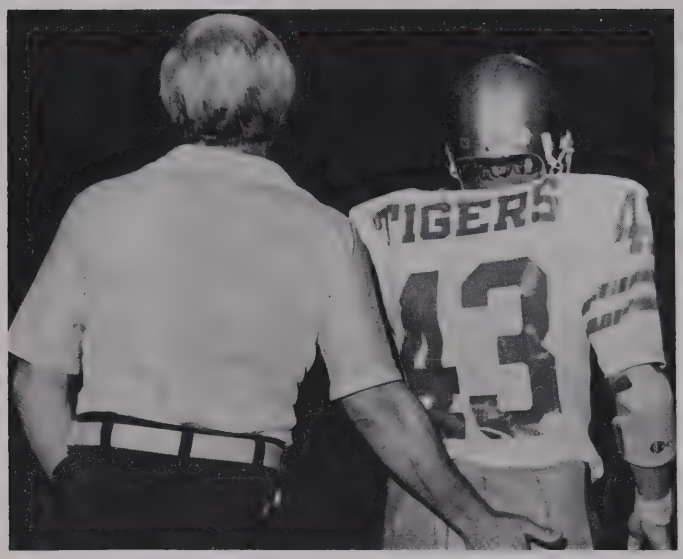
Dedication

The Tiger Annual Staff would like to dedicate the 1979 yearbook to a very hard working lady. She has been with the schools in Bay St. Louis and Waveland since 1962. She started at North Bay Elementary school as a lunch room lady. From there she was promoted to manager of the Waveland Elementary cafeteria. Then in 1969, after seven years of hard work and dedication, she was promoted to Supervisor of all the Bay St. Louis Public School System.

Mrs. Blaize and her helpers, Mrs. Valery Little, Mrs. Ola Rannik, Mrs. Anna LaFrance, Mrs. Lillian Carver, and Mrs. Doris Barnes.

Because this fine lady has been working so hard for the last 17 years to make our lunches healthy and well balanced, and because she listens attentively to all complaints, we, the Tiger Annual Staff would like to dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Lillian Blaize. Keep up the good work, we appreciate it!!



Coach Rhodes sends Joe Cabiniss off to the field.

Star Student

Alane Carlson

The Star Student is selected out of the two people in the Senior Class with the highest ACT score. Out of these two, the one with the highest grade average is the Star Student.

Alane scored a 30 on her ACT. Her school Activities include Vice-President of the National Honor Society (member 11th and 12th) Vice-President of the French Club (member 10th, 11th, 12th) Bat Girl (12th), Member of the Tiger Pride Band. She is a member of the Flag Corps (rep. 11th, 12th), member of the Alpha Honor Roll 10th, 11th, and 12th.

Congratulations Alane!

Star Teacher

Mrs. de Montluzin graduated from Ole Miss qualified to teach English, Latin, French and Spanish.

During World War II she was a translator of French and Spanish mail for the War Department of Postal Censorship.

She has taught French and Latin at Bay Sr. High School for eleven years. She has traveled several times to Europe bringing back slides and other pictures for her classes. Mrs. de Montluzin teaches her classes not only Latin and French Grammar, but also as much as possible of the history, art, and music of the countries involved.

Congratulations Mrs. de Montluzin for being selected Star Teacher.

Seniors' Words of Wisdom

"In the space that we share there is love, In the love that we share there is truth, In the words that we speak, In the life that we live, We are one." Lisa S.

"Don't put off tomorrow what you can do today because if you enjoy it today you can do it again tomorrow." Denise D.

"The tragedy of life is not that it ends so soon, but that we wait so long to begin it." Robin C.

"Accept me as I am so I may learn what I may become." Mary Beth B.

"Aim at the sun and you may not reach it, but your arrow will fly higher than if aimed at an object on a level with yourself." Kelyn K.

"Little drops of water, little grains of sand, make the mighty ocean and the pleasant land; so the little minutes, humble though they be, make the mighty ages of eternity." Sherry W.

"Most persons would succeed in small things if they were not troubled with great ambitions." Julia P.

"I like the dreams of the future better than the histories of the past." Janet E.

Some men see things as they are and say why, I dream things that never were and ask why not." Lisa T.

"This life that we're living is a short one so get all the laughs while you can." Tim D.

"In the wall are many doors. Be patient, search with diligence, for one will open to your key, and oh, the land beyond is very fair." Monica P.

"As we part, let's leave between us a smile of memories." Nena B.

"To love is to admire with the heart; to admire is to love with the mind." Sheila B.

"We too often love things and use people when we should be using things and loving people." Anne M.

"Not heaven itself upon the past has power, but what has been, has been, and I have had my hour." Cathy T.

"Lost yesterday: somewhere between sunrise and sunset, my childhood. Each year set with 365 diamond days. No reward offered, for it is lost forever, but cherished." Lesa H.

"When you make your mark in the world, watch out for men with erasers." Ann J.

"To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved." Ethel S.

"Live your life now for you may Die Tomorrow." John N.

"To be loved and be loved in return it's the only thing that my heart desires just appreciate the little things I do." Jeanette H.

"For those of us who love time is endless." Brenda L.

"Be strong, but don't be hard as a brick; be able to soak up rains, be able to take the strain, be able to sun. Be like the earth." Dorothy D.

"The more you study the less you know the less you study the more you know so why study." Jessie S.

"Stand for what you believe in. Don't be led wrong by others. Because if you do you will always be off course." Stephanie M.

"Study as if you were to live forever. Live as if you were to die tomorrow." Terry D.

"For every evil under the sun; if there be one, try and find it, if there be none, never mind it." Daniel B.

"It is much easier to recognize error than to find truth; error is superficial and may be corrected; truth lies hidden in the depths." Vivian H.

"To be loved; be lovable." Charlotte T.

"Men may come and men may go, but I go on forever." Shelia F.

"If only Chuck were here . . ." Lester M.

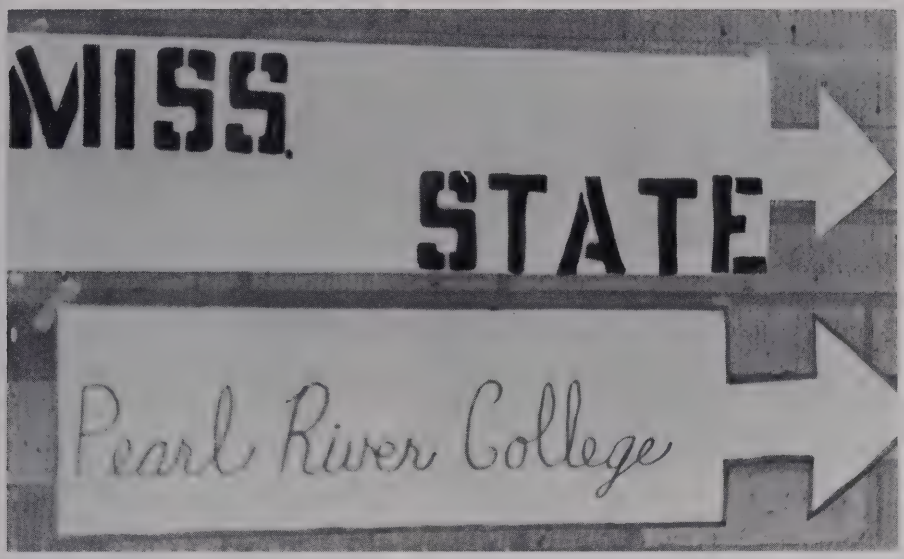
"The best way to destroy an enemy is to change him into a friend." Hanneke H.

"Be yourself; who else is better qualified?!" Terri Q.

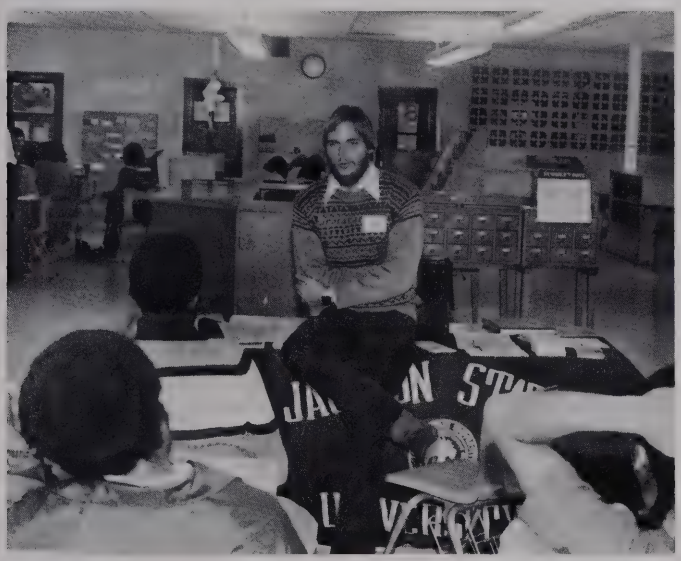
"All of our yesterdays may be gone, but we have our tomorrow to look forward to." Debbie H.

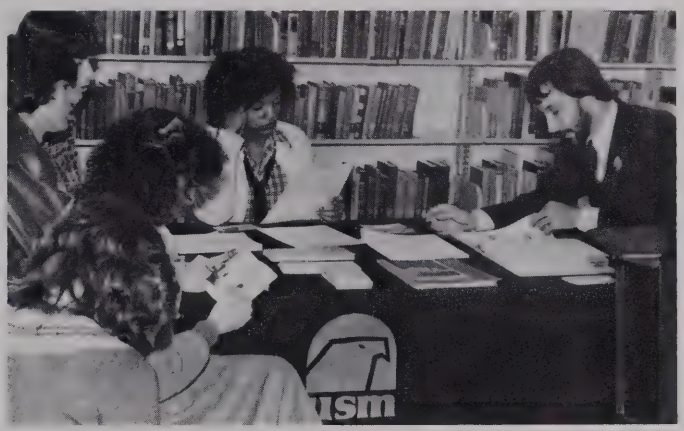
"No life that breathes with human breath, has ever truly longed for death." Debbie S.

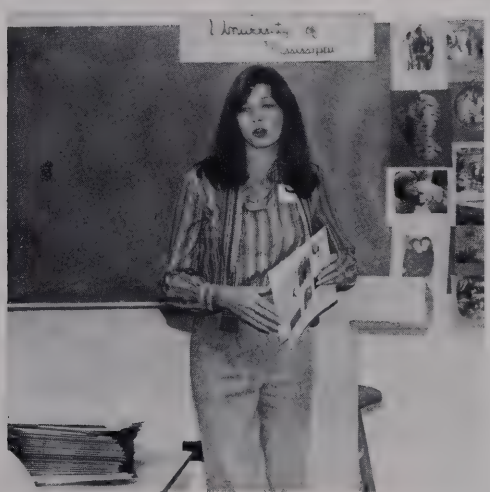
Which College Shall It Be?



On January 24th, the Guidance Department and the National Honor Society hosted the ninth annual college program. Representatives from Jackson State University, Mississippi State University, Pearl River Junior College, University of Mississippi, and the University of Southern Mississippi were on campus. For the first time, the college program was held during the school day in an attempt to boost participation.







A college education shows a man how little other people know.

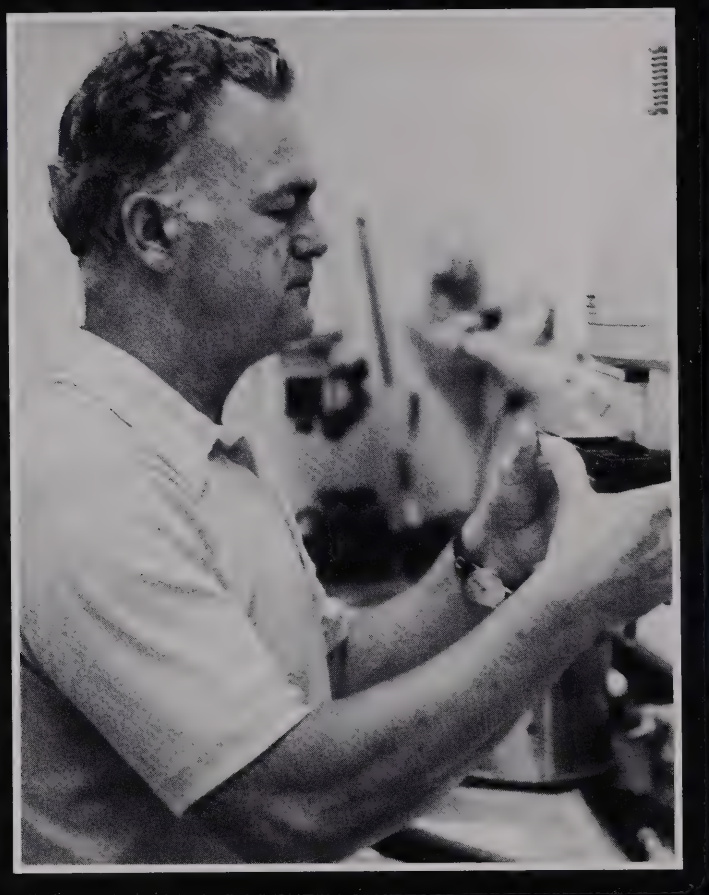
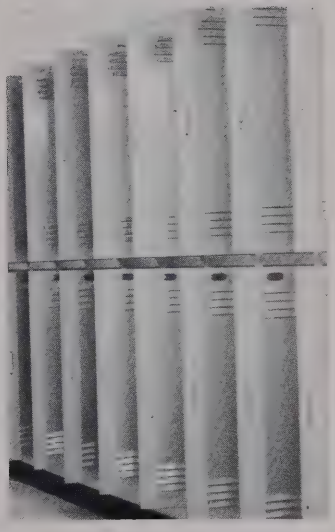
Many Thanks To:
"Mr. Ronald Thomas"

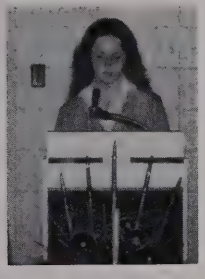


"Mr. Thomas" is known by everyone throughout the school for his friendliness and his helpful manner. After retiring from 20 years in the U.S. Army, he began working in the Bay St. Louis School System as an Audio Visual Materials Coordinator and bus driver.

Some of his many accomplishments include coaching basketball, little league baseball, and teaching classes on photography.

The Yearbook Staff would like to offer an extra special thanks for the many hours he has spent helping and guiding us in the art of photography.





Entry submitted by Leroy Thompson for cover design.

PARTY HARDY!!!

The Bay High Tiger Cheerleaders, better known as the 5:30 A.M. Gang. These ten cheerleaders have led TIGER SPIRIT throughout pep rallies, football, and basketball games.

In mid July they attended NCA camp at Perkinston Jr. College. While there they received four straight superior, three spirit sticks, and a ribbon for Super Star Squad. Being the only squad with the best motions, was awarded the trophy for "Best Motions". In November the squad traveled to Florida for the Gulf Breeze Invitational Cheerleading Competition. The only squad from MS who traveled the farthest, came in second out of seventy-nine.

CONGRATULATIONS ON A JOB WELL DONE!

"With wine, women and song, you can hardly go wrong." Kevin M.

"We always may be tomorrow what we might have been yesterday." Annie W.

"We may give without loving, but we cannot love without giving." Charlotte O.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you, weep and you weep alone; for the sad old earth must borrow its mirth, but has troubles enough of its own." Stephen T.

"He who is told doesn't listen but he who finds out for himself suffers." Jackie H.

"Give and be satisfied in the giving, for it has been truly stated, love is its own eternity." Linda B.

"With all my love to my family and friends, especially Danny. So to all of you good-bye and I wish you all the luck in the world." Lou C.

"Be what you are and not what others want you to be. Strive for your goal and you will succeed." Zenobia H.

"Rest shall be cherished with pleasure, but; work shall be cherished with happiness." Jon S.

"Love and a red nose can't be hidden." Lisa B.

"Life has many doors — doors through byways and highways, doors through justice and peace, doors for today and doors for tomorrow; to find these doors we must use a key, EDUCATION." Janet S.

"Always forgive your enemies; nothing annoys them so much." Matt C.

"The objects that we have known in better days are the main props that sustain the right of our affections and give us strength to await our future lot." Henry M.

"Try hard in whatever you want to succeed or you will never get there. Farewell to Curly and Mo." Micki C.

"The two great tragedies of life — not getting what you want and getting it." Honorene H.

"I wish the man that invented work, had finished it!!!" Bob W.

"Today we consume the herbs of life, tomorrow we search for a new life." Garry W.

"A false friend is like a shadow; he only stays while the sun shines." Janet B.

"If it is meant to be, it will be. Phi Kappa is here to stay." Robby B.

"After school is cool but trippin down the street can't be beat." Jim P.

"A. DIP. a day keeps the Doctor Away." Taylor G.

"I never could explain why I love anybody or anything —." Alycia N.

"The tragedy of life is not that it ends so soon, but that we wait so long to begin it." Tracey M.

"You never get a second chance to make a good first impression." Lisa A.

"This is only one stepping stone that I have completed of the many that lie before me." Gary D.

"Why not go out on a limb? Isn't that where the fruit is?" Amy H.

"You can't always get what you want but if you try sometimes you just might get what you need." Susan S.

"It's not how far you go in life, but how you got there." Mike R.

"A little nonsense, now and then, is relished by the wisest of men." Nancy G.

"Roses are red, violets are blue life is a bummer and so is school." Jessy N.

"To be able to go to school and achieve a Diploma for years of studying and learning is an honor I am proud to say I have earned." David M.

"Love in marriage should be the accomplishment of a beautiful dream, and not, as it too often is the end." Kim B.

"Our todays and yesterdays are the blocks with which we build." Terri L.

"Educable Interbition can be obtained by following introduction through reading, be all you can be read" and "you only learn by your previous doing". Diane Saucier.

"The man who trims himself to suit everybody will soon whittle himself away." Mindy D.

"Even though a diamond is the hardest mineral on earth, it can be split by its own hand." Kenny G.

"Love is a game in which both players always cheat." Cindy B.

"The tear that is wiped with a little address, may be followed perhaps by a smile." Debbie S.

"There can be no friendship, where there is no freedom." Buddy S.

"I am, what I am, whatever shall I be and that will be somebody." Wilbert D.

"We are only young once. That is all society can stand." Tracey K.

"When I see students taking lazy shortcuts in their education, I am reminded of the words of my grandfather, 'In the long run, the lazy man works the hardest!' " Eddie G.

"Be a success in life, be what you are and not someone else. Life is too short to play around, because there may never be someone to rebound." Deridra H.

"To be what we are, and to become what we are capable of becoming, is the only way of life." Myra P.

"Why be upset for what you cannot learn, pick up the pieces and start over again." Valada L.

"For all our tomorrows, whatever they hold, sharing a love, that will never grow old." Sharon L.

"He makes my world go around." To R. G. Donna L.

"Oh, Lord, help me to understand that you ain't gonna let nothin' come my way that you and me together can't handle." Sheri D.

"Do not take life too seriously; 'You will never get out alive.' " Paige H.

"Hear me out I've something to say! Love is a moment in time. Now that it is yours, it's mine." Donna P.

"Life and death are parts of the same great adventure. Do not fear to die and do not shrink from the joys of life." Donna L.

"There is this difference between happiness and wisdom, he that thinks himself the happiest generally is so; be he that thinks himself the wisest, is generally the greatest fool." Vic C.

"Speaking generally, no man appears great to his contemporaries, for the same reason that no man is great to his servants — both know too much of him." Thomas B.

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us." Donna P.

"Friendship often ends in love; but love, in friendship — never." Sid L.

"To the one who tries receives the prize. Thank-you Bay High." Mark H.

"What did you dream, my son? It's all right, we told you what to dream. So welcome to thee machine." Pink Floyd Rodger L.

"I look to the sea, reflections in the waves spark my memory, some happy, some sad, I think of childhood friends and the dreams we had." Alice L.

"The mind is a wonderful thing it starts working the moment you get up, and doesn't stop until you're called on in class." Darlene B.

"No man is an island unto himself." David B.

"The supreme happiness of life is the conviction that we are loved." Lydia L.

"The music of time has a very short melody. Its notes are often taken for granted. Let us realize the great, endure the cruel and enjoy the simple things. Don't pass a chance to live your life today before the notes of time slowly slip away." Patricia D.

"The kindest word in all the world is an unkind word, unsaid." Patty W.

"Life is a one way street and you never have a chance to travel back over it." Bonnie H.

"If love is there show it when you got it don't blow it." Homer A.

"Success in life depends on oneself." Mary Ann O.

"Friends are the most valuable possession you can have. You can count on them for anything, they are there when you need them. They understand you and your feelings." Debbie A.

"The time has come now, so we shall part, so, so long suckers." Douglas S.

"If life is a bed of roses, then why am I sitting on thorns." Gwen C.

"A day of toil, an hour for sport, but for a friend life is too short." Ken F.

"Days and nights often pass by, so let's not waste any time by being shy." Tony R.

"In youth we learn how little we can do for ourselves; in age how little we can do for others. The wisdom of experience is incommunicable." Isabel Paterson Pamela S.

"For yesterday is but a dream and tomorrow is only a vision but today, well lived, makes yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope." Lynne L.

"Good humor is one of the best articles of dress one can wear in society. Paula J.

"All you need in this life is ignorance and confidence, and then success is sure." Stacy B.

"I don't know where this road will lead to. All I know is where we've been and what we've been through. It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday." Annie H.

"The good things of life are not to be had singly, but come to us in a mixture." Rod S.

"In our thoughts we will be as two in our hearts and souls we will be as two; in our body we'll be as one." Alex G.

"Every man's work is a portrait of himself. His character is what God knows him to be. Always speak the truth and you'll never be concerned with your memory." Andy B.

"The best thing for a broken heart, is a new one. Then when all else fails run in circles scream and shout!" Jeff S.

"Every man's work is a portrait of himself." Lori M.

"Love isn't all what it's made out to be!" Arleen A.

"I look toward tomorrow, but tomorrow never comes. Rightfully so, to witness tomorrow, is to see the end. Through tears of joy or sorrow, I want to grow forever." Lauren C.

"The bitterest thing in our today's sorrow is the memory of our yesterday's joy." Alane C.

"As time slips away and we grow apart, the years we spent together become fond memories." Jeff C.

"Love cures people . . . both the ones who receive it, and the ones who give it." Walter S.

"School is neat but . . . being out is sweet! Dwayne L.

"I cannot love as I have loved, and yet I know not why. It is the one great woe of life I feel all feelings die. Farren A.

"With my friends and their love I am the richest person in the world." Cathy H.

"It is better to wear out than rust out." Mark F.

"Life begins after high school. Then a person can only become successful by hard work. By working from Monday through Sunday." Charlotte T.

"Live day by day and don't worry about tomorrow." John S.

"In order to succeed in life, one must have confidence in himself." Lucinda H.

"MAJOR ACCIDENT", Give-me, Lend-me, Will you let-me; hold something Just ran over the bridge. Thyrone W.

"As long as you try hard at something you will always succeed in whatever you do." Lynnette P.

"Do what you can and then pray that God will give you the power to do what you cannot." Raymond C.

To D.M., "Because my heart is split in two, the largest half I offer you. I am your friend through thick and thin, yours I am; be mine again." Daphne B.

"A successful woman is one who can be a woman at all times. One who can withhold the likes and dislikes of others." Rochelle B.

"The highest reward that God gives us for good work is the ability to do better." Jodie W.

"Well if I didn't get anything out of school, I got myself out. I think." Mary Jo d.

"Just when you think you can make ends meet, someone moves the ends." Stephen T.

"Man cannot live by bread alone. He needs a little Miller every now and then." Billy F.

"Dreaming Season is over, it's time to wake up and claim your dream. But don't claim a dream without a future or one you can't complete." Zelda C.

"I'm no. 1 in the City, I'm no. 1 in the State, Challenge me and I'll show you your fate." Tommy L.

"Teach me to foe another's woe, to hide the fault I see; that mercy I to others show, that mercy show to me. Farewell Jo and Mo GOD BLESS Woody!!" Suzanne A.

"Life is very strange, because once it's begun, death seems to be the unexpected time clock. Therefore live your life to its fullest before your time runs out." Melanie M.

"Memories are not like footprints in the sand on a beach, they aren't easily erased." Terry S.

"Fifth high school in four years, leaving home may bring me tears, but I'll move on to other things, and find out what other joys life brings." Farewell Jo and Curly!" Lori L.

"To love and be loved is to feel the sun from both sides." Angela R.

"Wine is fine liquor is quicker." Jonathan L.

"When the legends die, the dreams end; when the dreams end, there is no more greatness." Celia W.

"Like a Free Bird Runnin' on Empty, looking for a Stairway to Heaven, I roll on Down the Highway, gotta Ramble on, 'cause only the Good Die Young." Mike K.

"Roses are red, Violets are blue; I like to get high, How about you?" Earl C.

"Always remember: Vultures soar above those who are weak, and worms are continuously at work beneath your feet." Donald H.

Could we see when and where we are to meet again, we would be more tender when we bid our friends goodbye.

Ouida

As the sun comes up,
And the days roll on,
Each and everyone of us grows and matures.
When we look back at the years
We spent at Bay High;
The friends we had, and the times we spent with them
Will never be erased from our minds
